Remembering Vietnam

September 7-17

Wisconsin Remembers: A Face for Every Name This traveling exhibit that features a photo for each of the 1,161 Wisconsinites officially listed on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. The exhibit also includes additional photos for names that are listed on The Highground Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Neillsville, WI. The photos were collected by volunteers from throughout Wisconsin over the past eight years. This project was coordinated by Wisconsin Public Radio and is now administered by the Wisconsin Veterans Museum.

September 7 - November 12

The Paper Wall Originally constructed for LZLambeau in May 2010, this compilation of obituaries and/or casualty reports includes 1,244 of Wisconsin's best and brightest who gave their lives. The display was constructed with assistance from libraries, genealogical societies, archives, county veterans services officers, newspapers and others from throughout the state and beyond. Many volunteer hours were given to provide this remembrance. The Local History and Genealogy Department of the Brown County Library was the coordinator of the project and continues the work with the help of many local volunteers.

TUESDAY, September 12

7:00 pm

Preview Screening: *The Vietnam War Join Wisconsin Public Television in cooperation with the Brown County Library for a 60-minute preview of The Vietnam War, a new 10-part documentary series produced by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick. The screening will be followed by a panel discussion with area veterans talking about their experiences and reflecting on the film preview. The event is free and open to the public. No RSVP is required.

THURSDAYS, September 7 - October 26

THURSDAY, September 21

7:00 pm

Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Club: Among Others by Jo Walton Seeking refuge in fantasy novel worlds throughout a youth under the shadow of a dubiously sane mother who dabbled in magic, Mori Phelps is forced to confront her in a tragic battle and gains unwanted attention when she attempts to perform spells herself.

THURSDAYS, September 21 - October 26

7:00-8:00 pm

29th Annual Local History Series Stop by the library or visit our website for a brochure.

September 21 - *Oneida Language Preservation with Professor Clifford Abbott

The Oneida language is a rich and complex carrier of the Oneida culture. This talk will survey how the language became endangered, what the motivations are to preserve it, and what efforts have been made in the last 80 years to keep it alive. Clifford Abbott (Yale, PhD) is trained as a linguist. He is recently retired after more than four decades on the UW-Green Bay faculty in the communication, information sciences, and first nations studies programs. His major research focus has been the Oneida language and he has consulted and collaborated with the Oneida people in their efforts to preserve their language.

September 28 - No program scheduled due to the Packer game in Green Bay against the Chicago Bears.

October 5 - *Baptism by Football: the Year Green Bay and the Packers Forged Their Futures with Tony Walter

The year was 1922, and residents of Green Bay were navigating through a quickly changing post-war world that included automobiles, Prohibition, and a fledgling professional football team. Struggling to merely survive, the Packers took a back seat in the public consciousness to other major happenings in what would turn out to be a pivotal year in the city's history. Tony Walter retired, in 2012, from the Green Bay Press-Gazette after 37 years as a reporter and editor. Copies of Baptism by Football will be available for purchase and signing.

October 12 - *Beyond the Trenches: The Legacy of Wisconsin in World War I with Kevin Hampton

As we begin commemorating the centennial of World War I, the nation reflects on the role we played in the events that shaped the modern world. Join us as we dig deeper and explore the personal side of the "War to End All Wars" through the stories of Wisconsinites that served "over there." Kevin Hampton is the Curator of History at the Wisconsin Veterans Museum. He has been involved with living-history programs and local historical society work since 2000. He has been on staff of the Wisconsin Veterans Museum since 2013.

October 19 - *Green Bay's Great Fire of 1880 with David Siegel

This fire cut a swath of destruction through Green Bay. It began at Chicago Street and the Fox River and the flames moved from building to building, block to block until the destruction reached Webster Street and the East River. The fire destroyed about 60 homes, one church, a few businesses and many outbuildings for a total of 100 structures, making this the most disastrous fire in Green Bay history in terms of number of buildings lost. David Siegel is a Green Bay Firefighter and author of Forces of Change: Events that led to the development of the Green Bay Fire Department. Copies of Green Bay's Great Fire of 1880 will be available for purchase and signing.

October 26 - The Silver Man: the Life and Times of Indian Agent John Kinzie with Peter Shrake

Witness the dramatic changes that swept the Wisconsin frontier in the early to mid-1800s, through the life of Indian Agent John Harris Kinzie, "The Silver Man." From the War of 1812 and the monopoly of the American Fur Company to the Black Hawk War and the focused removal of thousands of Ho-Chunk people from their native lands, John Kinzie's life story gives us a front-row seat to a pivotal time in the history of the American Midwest. Peter Shrake is a lifelong resident of Wisconsin. He holds two master's degrees. Shrake has served as executive director of the Sauk County Historical Society and is currently the Reference Archivist at Circus World Museum, in Baraboo, WI. Copies of The Silver Man will be available for purchase and signing.

THURSDAY, October 12

6:30 pm

M&M Book Club Tami Hoag writes tightly woven, fast-paced suspenseful stories of women in danger. Characters are appealing, but do not dominate the story. Her plot-driven books provide plenty of tension, a high level of violence, and twists and turns to keep readers on edge until the very end. As with most suspense novels, readers get a first hand view of the crime from both the hero's and the villain's perspectives. Hoag skillfully creates truly frightening and edgy atmospheres. Start with: Ashes to Ashes
